

Two Homes

SPLIT is a deeply personal film made in collaboration with children aged 6-12, exploring the often frightening and always life altering separation of their parents.

What Helps

SPLIT gives us the children's perspective on divorce... no adults, no experts... just kids speaking the powerful truth of what is on their minds and in their hearts. Their wisdom, candor, and humor will give courage to other children, and encourage parents to make better choices as they move through divorce.

Moving On

The journey continues with a panel of divorce professionals discussing family restructuring from early childhood to young adults. Children's issues and developmental needs will be covered along with blended family challenges.
